Dear Sri Ashok Thakur,

Kindly refer to Office Memorandum of even number dated 10 May 2013 regarding abolition of affidavits and promotion of self-certification (copy enclosed) and Cabinet Secretary's letter dated 5th June 2014 {specifically Para 2 (b)}.

2. Some Ministries have adopted the provision of self-certification of documents such as mark sheet, birth certificate etc. by the applicants/ stakeholders. Under the self-attestation method, the original documents are required to be produced at the final stage.

3. You will appreciate that the above procedure is citizen friendly and obtaining either an attested copy or affidavit not only costs money to the poor citizen but also involves wastage of time of the citizens as well as of the Government officials. A presentation on the subject is attached for your perusal.

4. I will request you to kindly review the existing requirements of affidavits and attested copy by Gazetted Officers in various forms in your Ministry/Department in a phased manner and wherever possible, make provision of self-certification of documents and abolition of affidavits.

With warm regards

Yours sincerely,

Rationalization of Affidavits for Reforming Public Service Delivery System

Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances,
Government of India

Introduction

- The 2nd ARC (12th report) recommended simplification of procedures. The Punjab Governance Reforms Commission endorsed the same.
- Government of Punjab developed and implemented the scheme of rationalisation of affidavits and self certification.
- DARPG wrote to all Central Ministries and State Governments for abolition of affidavits and promotion of self certification of documents on 10th May, 2013 and 13th December 2013.
go to Concept Note
- Minister of State (PMO &PP) chaired a meeting on self certification and abolition of affidavits on 24th July 2013.

Attempt to bridge the Governance Deficits

PGRC conducted public opinion surveys of citizens satisfaction with service delivery. It pointed to four major deficits

Key Areas of Government – Citizen Interface

- Analysis of transactions in Suwidha centres (front-end service delivery centres) in Punjab showed that out of 22.68 lakh services delivered through the Suwidha centres, 14.8 lakh pertained to attestation of affidavits.
- Most of the affidavits called for not required by any Statute or under any provision of law. The Government of Punjab could identify only 12 services where an affidavit is mandatory under State and Central laws
- Government of Punjab decided to abolish Affidavits which are not required by statute

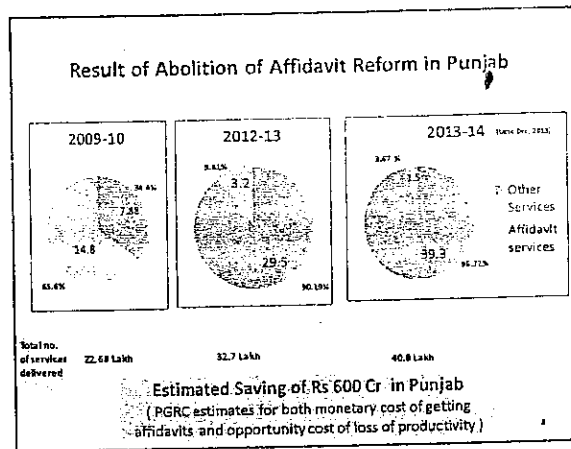

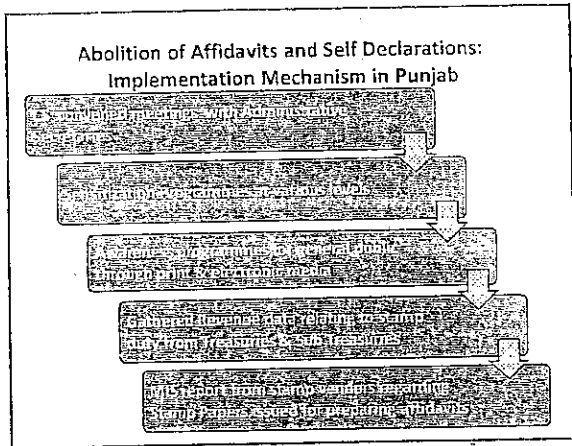

573 - A

Identification of solutions: Abolition of Affidavits

- Declarations before Civil Servants are as good as Affidavits.
- Application forms were drafted containing an undertaking that 'facts stated are true and correct to best of his / her knowledge and belief'.
- Any False Declaration before a Civil Servant attracts various penal sections of IPC such as Section 177, 182, 193, 197, 198, 199, 200, & 209.
- As far as admissibility of documents under Indian Evidence Act, there is no weightage of affidavits over self declarations.

Identification of solutions: Self Certification by citizens

- Replacement of attestation by gazetted officer with self certification by the Citizen.
- Self Attestation of certificates accepted for school, college admissions, employment authorities.

574

Way Forward
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Minimize the requirement of Third Party Verification by Officials for Issuance of Area, Residence/ Domicile and Caste Certificates, etc.• Issue of Caste Certificates to Students from Class 8th to be valid for their entire life.• Central Government to amend its own laws.• State Governments to amend their laws.
